

THE CENTRAL RECORD.

TWENTY EIGHTH YEAR

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 28, 1917.

NUMBER 13.

Oxygen--Acetylin Welding.

This is a new invention for Welding, Casting, Wrought Iron, Brass, Etc.

We have installed this plant in our shop.
Don't throw away your broken casting, but bring them to us. We can weld and make good as new--in fact we can build them up and make stronger.

Conn Brothers.
LIVE AND LET LIVE FOLKS.

The Germans are getting no rest in Belgium and Northern France.

Gardens have come into their own-- the high cost of living will come down a notch or two, for which let us be thankful.

History is being made so fast in these stirring times that what has scarcely occurred when the paper goes to press has become ancient history before it is in the hands of the subscribers.

The czar of Russia and the King of Greece have already gone. The King of Spain seems tottering on his throne and if the Kaiser is not entirely bereft of brains, he too must see that he is about to go.

Who shall question the patriotism of our people, after seeing the rapt attention paid the masterful address of Gov. Stanley, Sunday night. Who shall question it after hearing the generous offerings of our people.

The Red Cross canvass in Garrard is on. Let it be pushed. At this time in our national history there is no place for the tightwad. The boys who fight to protect your property and your liberty are entitled to your support.

The citizens of Boyle county are responding liberally to the call for Red Cross funds. It now appears that Boyle county will easily furnish her quota of $10,000. Practically every one is contributing. This is striking evidence of the patriotic spirit of the community.

Admitting that she made remarks disloyal to the United States, Miss Dora Israel was discharged from San Francisco Public Schools after seventeen years teacher in the local schools.
She told the board of education she could not teach children to honor the flag because she said it meant nothing to her.

BACON ECONOMY.

As we told you most Bacons contain an excess of salt.
They require to be freshened before being cooked.

These Bacons cost less per pound than ours, but when you figure on this salt at about 15c a pound, there is a different story to tell.

The beauty of our Bacon is that there is not the least bit of waste about it.

In a pound of it there are 16 ounces that can be eaten. We would be glad to have you try the brand we handle.

We think you would agree with us that it is a superior article.

Currey's

REV. H. S. HUDSON.

Chairman of the local Red Cross Society of Garrard county. He introduced Governor Stanley Sunday night and his announcement of his coming both from his pulpit and telephone helped to make the meeting the success it was.

As Chairman of the local Red Cross, he was the instrumentality, with earnest assistants, in receiving in one evening nearly $2,000 for the American Red Cross fund. He is now asking for more $100 subscriptions and hopes to have as many as thirty such donations by the end of the week. While the local chapter has never been assessed any definite amount, it is thought that $5,000 can and will be raised in Garrard county.

FIRST TOMATOES.

Mr. R. L. Elkin reports the first ripe tomatoes of the season, a sample of which he recently brought to this office.
It is said that Mr. Elkin has about the best garden around these "diggings".

SQUIRE HAM ANNOUNCES.

The announcement of the candidacy of Mr. John Ham for the renomination for magistrate for district number 3, appears in this issue of the Record.
No truer democrat ever offered for office in this county and the record he has made during the past two years he has held the office, should be sufficient recommendation to insure his renomaination and election.

SMALL FIRE.

Tuesday afternoon about five o'clock the residence owned and formerly occupied by postmaster E. P. Brown caught fire from a defective stove but was extinguished by the prompt arrival of the fire department, with a loss of about $200. The house was occupied by Mr. M. M. Turner whose loss is small from water damage. He had no insurance.

MUCH NEEDED REST.

Mr. Louis Landram, editor of this paper is taking a much needed rest.
Mr. Landram has been slightly indisposed for some weeks. Every one is hoping to see him back in the harness in the next few days. --Danville Messenger.

What "Bangs" needs is old Garrard, old friends, old jokes and he will be himself again. The latch-string on every door hangs on the outside for him.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Mr. Vernon Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Booth Thompson, who formerly lived here and is well remembered, was killed in a mine disaster near Butte, Mont., a few days ago. He was about 21 years old and was prominently connected.

Short memorial services will be held in his memory next Sunday morning at the Christian church. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family in the loss of their only son.

REAL CLEAN UP SALE.

Those persons who are hunting for bargains should not fail to read the advertisement in this issue of the Record and attend the sale of J. E. Dickerson, which begins Saturday June 30th.
The immense advance in price of many articles which Mr. Dickerson is offering at less than the wholesale price to-day, should keep his store crowded until his entire stock which he is offering is sold.

FINE SADDLER.

Mr. N. W. Rogers, of Paint Lick and one of the best judges of horse flesh in this part of the state, purchased a walking mare of Steve Halcomb last Monday, that will open the eyes of many competitors in the fair rings throughout the state during the con-ting circuits. She is a beautiful sorrel and has the "running walk" down to perfection. Mr. Rogers paid $300 for her without a word and was offered a handsome profit by several during the day.

GOVERNOR STANLEY

Addresses Large Crowd In Interest Of Red Cross. Nearly $2,000 Raised.

Responding to the call to aid in raising the $100,000,000 asked for by the American Red Cross Society, $700,000 of which is to be raised in Kentucky, Lancaster and Garrard county will answer the call as patriotically as she responded to the Liberty Loan and will do her part in this worthy work.

The meeting was held in the large tent of the Reupath Chautauqua and every inch of space was filled. Rev.
H. S. Hudson who is the chairman of the local Red Cross called the meeting to order, which was opened by a scriptural reading and prayer by Rev. Pal-meter, of the Methodist church. The platform was crowded with the local Red Cross workers, dressed in their conventional uniform. Many patriotic songs were sung and an interesting talk by Rev. H. S. Hudson, entertained the audience until the speaker of the evening arrived, when he in turn introduced Governor Stanley, who in response to an invitation from the executive committee of the local Red Cross organization delivered one of the most impressive speeches in praise and defense of the Red Cross Society that has been heard in a generation. Always interesting and likewise eloquent, he showed a familiarity with the workings of the order and gave a review of the war programme since the Prussians treated the treaty of Belgium as a mere scrap of paper to the latest aeroplane raids on London killing and wounding women and children in their desperate and savage warfare. The Governor emphasized the fact that the United States had never attempted to do anything other than humane. In any action she had ever taken in previous wars, history had proven to be in defense of helpless humanity from the fact it had never desired territory or power.

He represented the policy of our country as a democracy of service to the world and thru this spirit to bring about the peace of nations. He made it plain how we were forced into this war, speaking in scathing language of the insults and aggressions of the Imperial German Government which left us no choice but to take up arms in defense of our rights as a free people and of our honor as a sovereign government. The military masters of Germany denied us the right to be neutral, they impudently denied us the use of the high seas and repeatedly executed their threat that they would send to their death any of our people who ventured to approach the coast of Europe.

He dwelt upon the fact that the we were remote from the roar of guns and this dreadful carnage we must not de-lude ourselves with a false sense of security. He spoke feelingly of the brave young men of the nation who were taking up the bitter task to insure our safety and peace and made an eloquent plea that we support them.
He said the Red Cross required little explanation, its work being the noblest and best know of all organized benevolence.

Altogether Governor Stanley made a most favorable impression upon the vast audience. Distinguished, big-voiced, big-hearted and big-brained he fairly thrilled his hearers and none of them were so little or so narrow as to have a partisan thought. He closed by saying he was not working for any party, he was giving no thought to Democrats or Republicans to the "wets" or the "drys" but he was putting his time, his thought, his soul and being into the preservation of the "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave".

After the stirring address of Governor Stanley, chairman Hudson made an earnest plea for contributions which resulted in subscriptions to the amount of nearly $2,000. Those who have contributed are as follows:

T. C. Rankin	$100.
J. S. Haselden	$100.
B. F. Hudson	$100.
W. R. Cook	$100.
J. Y. Robinson	$100.
V. A. Lear	$100.
W. A. Farnau	$100.
J. E. Robinson	$100.
Mrs. R. L. Burton	$100.
Wm. Lear	$100.
R. J. Lewis	$100.
W. B. Burton	$100.
R. L. Hurton	$100.
Gill Sisters	$100.

LIBERTY BONDS NOW

SOLD AT A PREMIUM

The Treasury Department's announcement that subscriptions to the $2,000,- 000,000 Liberty Loan had reached the total of $3,035,226,850, necessitating a considerable cutting down of the larger sized applications, had the effect of stimulating trading in the new Government securities on the Stock Exchange yesterday. The large oversubscription showed the demand for the bonds was greater than the supply and forecast the selling of the bonds at a premium.

Simplest of Cements.

Condensed milk applied to the edges of the pieces of broken china will keep the article as intact as the majority of cements on the market today, writes Edwin W. Ely in a letter to the Electrical Experimenter. Mr. Ely adds that he has mended saucers that have withstood washings in hot water, and has mended a telescope lens of fairly large size with this unique cement.

Cat's Standing in Rome.

In Rome the cat gave the first evidence of predatory instincts and his value as a mice destroyer. Agathocles, whose pet partridge had been killed and eaten by a cat, denounces him as one of the devouring dogs of Aetna. Pilius and Palladius praise him for his destruction of mice and rats, while Caesar's soldiers carried the faces of cats emblazoned on their banners.

Try This One.

Hint to husbands: When drying dishes hold the slippery ones over the rest of the dishes. Then when they slip, the chances of breaking more dishes are increased many times over the more familiar plan of dropping them on the floor. The more dishes you break, you know, the fewer you have to dry. There is no object in drying broken pieces of china.—Kansas City Star.

Children's Bedtime.

Interesting statistics showing the time at which the children of Beverly, Mass., between the ages of eight and twelve, go to bed, disclose that 13 go to bed between five and six o'clock, 5,240 between eight and nine; 156 between 11 and 12, and 45 between 12 and 1. It is to be hoped that there are no Beverly children who are not in their nighties, safely tucked up, by one o'clock.—Boston Globe.

Getting Worried.

Clarence constantly played with Marguerite, one of twins, until his parents teased him about his "girl." One afternoon Clarence's mother was sitting on the porch. Clarence, Marguerite, and a few other children were playing in the yard. Suddenly he left the group and coming to his mother said: "Mother, when you marry a (wln, do you have to marry both of them?)"

Almost every one in Paint Lick and the surrounding country attended the Masonic picnic at Crab Orchard Saturday, and all report a delightful day.

It seems that surprise weddings are the order of the day in Paint Lick and none has been a greater one than when Miss Jessie Parks and Mr. William E. Davis, of Jackson, announced Monday that they had been married in Jackson on last Saturday. Miss Jessie is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parks, and is a handsome, attractive young woman. She has been in Jackson for the past four or five months as a trimmer in one of the large millinery shops. Mr. Davis is cashier of the First National Bank of Jackson and the position he holds speaks for him as to his business and integrity. We join with a host of friends in extending congratulations and good wishes.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sidesache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the pain has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today.

"THE LAND OF NOW"

EXPERIENCE AND EFFICIENCY COUNT IN ALL BUSINESS.

Our records for the past eight years show sales of more than 13,500 acres of land, besides a large amount of town and city property and stocks of merchandise, amounting to more than $1,500,000.00 and this business was done to the entire satisfaction of more than 100 clients and customers and they are my references for "fair dealing."

From my experience in the business I know how, when, where and what to advertise.

To the one who has property to sell—farm lands, city property, dwellings, lots or business property, merchandise or any real estate proposition, I solicit your business, believing I can handle it to your entire satisfaction.

List your farm or other property with me now. I now have on hand a long list of parties who are going to buy something somewhere and your property may be just what I am looking for.

To the one who wants to invest, I solicit your patronage as I know values and know that when you close a deal through me you will get "value received" for your money.

I have on hand for sale at all times a large number of farms, dwellings, city property not in the advertised list, as my list of property is constantly changing, by sales, expirations renewals, listing new properties and some of my best properties are not advertised at the request of the owners.

If you are a non-resident of Garrard County, write me and I will tell you all about our County, its fertile soil, its products, market facilities, good roads, schools and churches, of Lancaster and its business, its people and its growth.

The following is just a few of the properties I have on hand for sale now.

A MERCILESS JUDGE. One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Lancaster resident has withstood the sternest of all tests.

Mrs. H. P. Walter, Hill Terrace, Lancaster, says: "I never fail to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are a most worthy remedy and have done me much good on many occasions. For several years, I have suffered from a lame and painful back. My kidneys have also been irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills have always removed every symptom of kidney trouble at these times." (Statement given March 20, 1908.)

ALWAYS RELIABLE.
On November 18, 1916, Mrs. Walter said: "I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. I was free from kidney trouble for a long time, but recently had a slight attack. I again used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved me."

PLAY TIME.

Does the word play with all its numerous suggestions appeal to you? At Kavanaugh Camp, July 30 August 6, every kind of play is enjoyed. Some campers like tennis, therefore a tennis committee is organized in each Conference. Louisville and Kentucky, to plan a tournament. Last year the Kentucky Conference was victorious. For those who prefer tramps thru the country, special arrangements are made for a tramp to Pewee Valley to visit Mrs. Annie Fellows Johnson, author of the Little Colonel stories. Last year the girls were welcomed by Mrs. Johnston, who introduced to them the famous negro mammy, Mona Beck. One of the most delightful hours will be spent at the swimming pool where instruction in swimming will be given free. One day there will be a "March-mellow Toast" or a "Bacon Fry". Come to Kavanaugh Camp and enjoy these good times. Be sure to send your registration blank in before July 15, 1917, to Miss Helen McCandless, 1111 S. Floyd St. Louisville, Ky.

PUTTING LOAFERS TO WORK

Papers all over the state continue high in their commendation of Judge Shackelford's efforts to put the loafers to work at this time. The Elizabeth-town News said last week:

"Judge W. R. Shackelford, of the Richmond circuit court, recently requested the mayor of Richmond to procure for him a list of the unemployed able bodied men, white and colored, within the corporate limits of that city. The judge stated that he desired to call the attention of his next grand jury to idleness and as a means of getting the attention of the jurors specifically called to the matter he wanted the exact number who are violating the vagrancy law. The action of Judge Shackelford is along the right line and should be imitated by every Circuit Judge in the state. This is no time for idleness. Those who won't work should not be allowed to eat bread. There is work and plenty of it for every man to get a job who is able to work. We should like to see Judge Layman do just what Judge Shackelford has done. There are a lot of loafers around Elizabethtown. You can hardly go to the L. & N. station here that you do not see standing around from six to a dozen men who do nothing but loaf. Many of this class are worthless negroes who bootleg whisky, shoot craps and won't work. It is a good time to put stout people to work to escape indictment under the vagrancy law, or else force them to skip the town. They have been offered good wages to work in gardens or cut grass on the lawns but they decline. Somebody has to feed these trilling fellows and we believe the best way to feed them is at the county's expense by putting them to work on a rock pile or repairing roads. Away with the loafers and idlers and in this way we can get rid of a number who belong to the criminal class."

We heartily agree with the Etown News and hope Judge Frisbie will fall in line and see that all of our loafers are put to work. Gov. Stapley says there are only two classes that live off of people for nothing—the German aristocrat and a lounge—what about the Lancaster loafer?

RED BLOOD AMERICANISM IS COMING TO THE FRONT

Right now this Country is calling for men of stout hearts and sound bodies. It needs them to keep Old Glory triumphant and unsullied in the air.

The exigency now confronting us emphasizes, as nothing else could do, the importance of good health, both as an individual and national asset.

It gives point to the suggestion, often emanating from this office, that everybody should guard their health as a priceless possession. RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

JULY 10, 11, 12th.

GARRARD COUNTY'S GOAL

$5,000.00

For The American RED CROSS Fund.

EVERY MAN, WOMEN AND CHILD WILL BE CALLED UPON DURING THE ABOVE DATES TO MAKE A CONTRIBUTION

THE GARRARD COUNTY RED CROSS CHAPTER

Monday, May 28th, 1917, was organized the Garrard County Red Cross Chapter. The local chapter asks the co-operation of every man, woman and child in Garrard county to contribute something to this fund. The Red Cross is the only volunteer organization for Relief of War or Civilian, authorized by the United States Government, by Act of Congress, and Presidential Proclamation. Its accounts are audited by the War Department. It is non-sectarian and non political. It is organized to furnish aid to sick and wounded of armies in time of war, and to devise and carry on measures of relief for those suffering great disaster in time of peace.

The most stupendous and appealing call in the history of the world to aid suffering humanity confronts our Red Cross. Millions of men who have been fighting for liberty lie dead or wounded; millions of women and children are homeless and helpless; hundreds of towns and villages have been destroyed; diseases and distress are rampant. Up to now our own people have not suffered. While Europe has been pouring out her life blood, America has experienced a prosperity she has never known before. But now we ourselves are in this gigantic war. We now see that the struggle against Autocracy and tyranny which our Allies have been making, is and has from the first been, in reality, no less our struggle than theirs.

We ourselves must now share the suffering which they have endured; we to, must do our part in a real way.

Joining the Garrard County Red Cross Chapter or contributing to this fund does not involve any field service, nor other financial obligations, other than the payment of the dues, or the amount you wish to contribute to this fund. It merely means you are helping to do your bit for

Home Country Humanity

NOW IS THE TIME TO DO YOUR BIT.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

The three senatorial candidates for the Democratic nomination for this district, Messrs J. R. Mount, H. Clay Kauffman and Jay Harlan, had their inning here last Monday, when J. R.
 Mount announced that he would speak at the court house and invited his opponents to be on hand.

The house was well filled with friends of the speakers and all received hearty applause from their supporters.

Mr. Mount led off with the first speech and gave many reasons why he should be nominated and many reasons why his opponents should not be nominated. His talk was along conversational lines which was convincing to his friends, while the ridicule that he heaped upon his opponents, was likewise applauded by them. He was followed by Mr. Harlan of Boyle to a very masterly address, always trying to keep in the minds of his hearers that it was "Boyle county's time".

Mr. Kauffman was the last speaker and his friends claim that he made the best speech of his life. He recounted the work he had done in the last Legislature and said he was willing to stand pat on that record which he thought good enough to insure his nomination in the coming primary and his election in November. Mr. Kauffman had many friends in the audience who applauded him heartily and claim his nomination is assured.

Mrs. Susie Bolington, aged 58 years and a resident of Cincinnati, died at the home of her son, Mr. J. S. Merchant on the Danville pike Wednesday morn-county and was a devoted member of the Baptist church. She is survived by four children.

 done on this day only, not a day sooner or a day later.

EXEMPTION BOARD.

Dr. J. M. Acton, G. T. Ballard Jr., and John M. Farra, have been appointed by Governor Stanley on the Garrard County Exemption Board. Under the present plans of the War Department in carrying out the selective draft, those called will be chosen by drawing their names from a wheel in Washington. The local board will be notified of the numbers they must pass on. Those claiming an exemption will appear before the local board at the proper time to state their case.

MRS. MARSEE HURT.

While returning from the Masonic celebration at Crab Orchard last Saturday, Mrs. Noah Marsee received painful injuries in an auto accident on the Kirksville pike about five miles from Lancaster. The brakes on the car failed to work and in turning a sharp curve, Mr. Marsee who was driving, lost control and the car was ditched, resulting in the above injuries to Mrs. Marsee. No other occupants were hurt. Mrs. Marsee was brought to the home of Mr. Joe Turner in this city where she received medical attention.

PREWITT.

On Wednesday, June 20th, Mrs. Ella Prewitt, oldest daughter of Mr. Ebb Scott died at the Danville Hospital after an operation for appendicitis.
 She lingered ten days after the operation, but complications set up which caused her death. Besides her father she is survived by one little girl about six years old and two brothers and one sister. Mrs. Prewitt was about 25 years old and a devout member of the Baptist church. The remains were brought to Paint Lick last Thursday morning where the interment took place, the services being conducted by Rev. Robinson, of Preachersville.
 Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved father in the loss of this lovable and affectionate daughter.

LANCASTER TO HAVE NEW CEMETERY.

In the very near future Lancaster is to have a new cemetery. Last week Messrs J. S. Haselden, P. W. Wells and H. C. Hamilton of this city closed a trade with the Boyle heirs for their entire property on Crab Orchard street.

The new owners will as soon as possible give October 1st, have a landscape gardener from Brinkley Arkansas, take charge of the property and beautify it, grading, laying out drives, planting scrubby etc, to make it one of the most beautiful little cemetery's in the State. Mr. H. C. Hamilton will be the Secretary of the new Company.

Mr. J. S. Haselden is one of Lancaster's most public-spirited citizens, always looking to the beautifying and advancement of his home town. As much as we may lament it, still it is a fact, that the old cemetery is fast becoming filled up and the day is not far distant when this will be much needed ground.

Miss Ruth Lawler Ray, of Decatur, Illinois, and Master Carroll Cooley of Indianapolis, are here to spend the summer with the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ray of Buckeye.

Miss Ray entered Howling Green College the first of June, where she will resume her senior work for six weeks.
 She has accepted a position in the city school of Monticello, Ill, for this year.
 While she will be one of the best salaried teachers, it is not flattering as her work in the past three years has been highly commendable in that state.
 She is classed as one of the most progressive and enthusiastic teachers in her county.

She is recognized as a leader and has been very active in organizing Mothers Clubs, installing Domestic Science and Manual Training, also fully equipped her school with play ground apparatus.

While accepting this position at Monticello, she is doing so at a sacrifice of a more lucrative one at Edmond, Okla., where her brother, Prof. L. B. Ray, is located.

Miss Ray received her training in the State Normal of Richmond and began her teaching in Garrard county.
 She partly owes her success to close co-operation with the County Superintendent, trustee and parents.

Her many Garrard friends wish her continued success in her chosen field.

CHAUTAUQUA CLOSES

And Contracts Are Closed For Another Year.

The Redpath Chautauqua closed its fourth annual session here last Monday night. Much interest has been manifested throughout the entire program and good crowds have attended every meeting. Sufficient pledges were secured for its return another year and the contract was closed with more than forty guarantors that insures its financial success to the Redpath people, on their next return.

Mr. E. M. McConoughy, the superintendent made his first official bow to a Lancaster audience this year and made many friends during his stay.
 All the men connected with the tent were splendid young men and they also made friends, who hope to see them all back again next year.

 unanimously decided that the campaign will be aroused in the different sections

THE YOUNG BRIDE'S FIRST DISCOVERY

Their wedding tour had ended, and they entered their new home to settle down to what they hoped to be one long uninterrupted blissful honeymoon. But alas! the young bride's troubles soon began, when she tried to reduce the cost of living with cheap "big can" baking powders. She soon discovered that all she got was a lot for her money, and it was not all baking powder, for the bulk of it was cheap materials, which had no leaving power. Such powders will not always give the desired results. And because of the absence of leavening gas, it requires from two or three times as much to raise cakes or biscuits as it does of Calumet Baking Powder. Thus eventually, the actual cost to you, of cheap baking powders, is more than Calumet would be. Cheap baking powders often leave the bread bleached and acid, sometimes yellow and alkaline, and often unpalatable. They are not always of uniform strength and quality. Now the bride buys Calumet—the perfectly wholesome baking powder, moderate in price, and always uniform and reliable. Calumet keeps indefinitely makes cooking easy, and is certainly the most economical after all.

ALL AROUND THE FARM

LEGUMES ARE VALUABLE.

Furnish Nutritious Food For Animals and Also Enrich the Soil.
(Prepared by United States Department of Agriculture.)

Farmers have known for centuries that the clovers, alfalfa, beans and peas enriched the soil, so that wheat, corn, cotton and similar crops gave better yields when following them than when planted after the grains or grasses. The reason for this fact, however, is of more recent discovery than the fact itself.

The soil enriching, leguminous plants possess normally nodules attached to their roots. These are due to the presence of great numbers of bacteria, minute living organisms which enter the roots from the soil. To us their importance lies in the fact that they possess the power of absorbing nitrogen from the air as it circulates in the soil and turning it into compounds which are readily utilized in the growth of the plants. Plants to which these bacteria are not attached derive the nitrogen required for their growth from the soil alone.

Crimson clover, showing the most advanced stage of opening that is allowable to use for hay.

In consequence leguminous plants in general contain more nitrogen than the nonleguminous. They are therefore richer feeds, and if they are returned in whole or in part to the soil they increase its nitrogen content and thus promote the growth of the following crop. A third advantage in their use is the fact that when fed to live stock the resulting manure has an unusually high fertilizing value.

Under ordinary circumstances the best way to dispose of these crops is to feed them to live stock. All kinds of stock will benefit from them. Alfalfa hay can be substituted in part for such concentrates as wheat bran and cottonseed meal for both dairy and beef cattle. Red, alsike and sweet clover and field peas are less nutritious, but they are nevertheless more valuable than timothy, redtop, orchard grass or other nonlegumes.

Furthermore, the fertilizing value of a leguminous crop need not be lost when it is fed. From 75 to 90 per cent of this fertilizing value can be given to the soil if the manure from the live stock is spread promptly and properly. The small percentage that is lost is insignificant in comparison with the gain to the live stock.

For various reasons, however, some good and some bad, the farmer does not always keep sufficient live stock to furnish enough manure for the requirements of the soil. Under such circumstances a substitute must be found and the most available one is a leguminous crop, called, when grown for this purpose, a green manure crop. By plowing under this crop humus is added to the soil in much the same way that it is by applications of manure. Because they also add nitrogen legumes are more desirable green manure crops than nonlegumes.

Plowed under crops, however, obviously produce no direct return, and for that reason it is desirable whenever possible that the same land should produce during the season one crop for harvest and one crop for green manure. In the southern part of the northern states grain, early potatoes and a number of other crops are harvested sufficiently early for them to be followed by a catch crop, as a crop following the main one is called.

When there is no time to grow a second crop before cold weather, legumes may still be used as winter cover crops. These serve three purposes—first, to take up available plant food that might otherwise be leached from the soil and lost; second, to protect the land against erosion; third, to supply winter pasture. In the spring they should be turned under for green manure. Red clover, crimson clover and hairy vetch make good cover crops in the north. A common practice is to mix hairy vetch with rye.

Feeding the Cow.

The dairy cow must have a ration from which she can produce milk if you expect her to make a profitable return for the feed.

DAIRY WISDOM.

Don't sacrifice any better calf from a first class dairy cow.
Give each calf a chance to drink water at least twice each day.
Give the cows a good feeding of hay before turning into the fresh pasture.
Put the cows on the low ground where the coarse grass springs up and grows rankly at the start. If this grass is left uncropped it becomes tough and will not be eaten at all.
Calves can be raised perfectly on skim milk.

SUMMER SILAGE CROPS.

Provision Should Be Made to Tide Over Scant Pasture Period.

Dairy farmers who have not already made preparations for tiding cows over the period of insufficient pastures in late summer and fall should not forget that many cows went nearly dry last July and August, says a Pennsylvania Agricultural college bulletin. Such conditions may be avoided and incidentally the dairyman's bank account strengthened by a little forethought.

Maintaining the milk flow during the period of insufficient pasture may be accomplished by feeding additional grain, by feeding silage crops and by feeding silage.

Feeding silage crops in addition to the pasture secured by the cows helps to maintain the milk flow at moderate cost. The objection to this method is the labor and planning necessary in planting and cutting such crops at the proper time. Unless one has some silage from last year's feeding silage crops offer the most feasible feeding plan for the coming summer.

The best, cheapest and most practical way to tide over short pastures is to have an ample supply of corn silage. Plan to have enough left over from winter feeding to take care of the short pasture period. This involves less labor than silage crops, and the feed is handy and ready for use whenever needed.

The summer silage should be rather narrow in diameter so that the silage may be fed at the rate of three inches daily to prevent spoiling.

Begin now to plan for a corn acreage sufficient to insure silage for next summer's feeding. It will keep well with the exception of a small amount on top. Put up an extra silo if needed. In the meantime plant some silage crops for use this summer.

CALVES UNPROFITABLE.

Consume More Food In Milk Than They Produce In Meat.

Veal calves from dairy cows generally lose money for their owners, and when these calves are kept until a year old the loss is even greater, is the information brought by cost account records of the Ohio agricultural experiment station for twenty-six herds. The milk used to grow those calves is often of more value as human food than the veal produced.

In the twenty-six dairy herds eighteen owners lost money on raising calves for veal. The average loss on 323 veals was about $1.95 a head. The average loss on raising 261 calves in thirty herds studied was $6.90 for the first year. Only five dairymen among the thirty raised calves at a profit.

When dairymen get a high price for milk they would be ahead by selling calves rather than raising such animals for veal or beef. The milk would bring a higher price for human food than the veal produced from it. Pure bred calves usually bring higher prices for breeding purposes, and in such cases it is profitable to raise them.

SWINE ON PASTURE.

Hogs Require Some Grain to Make Economical Gains.

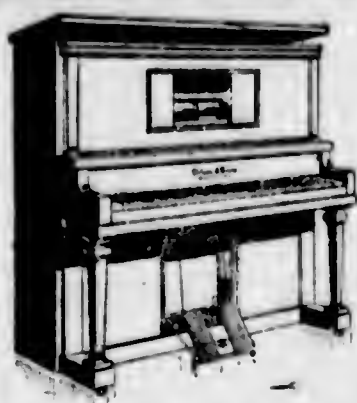

Hogs on pasture require grain for greatest profits in pork production, but a full feed is not economical when pasture is plentiful and grain high priced. When corn alone is fed a limited ration is considerably cheaper because the forage crop takes the place of much of the grain.

Hogs fed all the grain they would eat made more rapid but less economical gains in feeding tests at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment station. They can be marketed sooner, however, which often is an advantage to farmers.

Some protein feed, such as tankage or skim milk, is recommended to be fed in small quantity along with corn and pasture to pigs weighing less than 100 pounds. Pork production is usually too expensive when such feeds are given to large hogs, especially if they are on such pasture as alfalfa, clover, rape or soy beans, all of which are high in protein.

Care of Horses.

Frequent currying and brushing will insure a healthy condition of the horse. A few minutes spent daily in currying and brushing a horse is time well spent. Aside from giving the animal a clean, glossy appearance, this daily brushing stimulates circulation. The skin is an important excretory organ and must be kept clean and free to do its work. In the spring the horses should be kept especially clean, as the long hours of work, dust, sweat and heat all combine to make proper care of the skin a necessity. Sore shoulders and other afflictions, due to lack of care on the part of the owner, have often caused great loss of time and money.—Farm and Fireside.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

Do not encourage visits to your barn from the neighbor whose stock is always ailing. There is a theory that the way to keep a hog well is to keep him and his food and surroundings clean. Worth trying. When the flock has been eating roots the change to the fresh grass is not so relaxing. Some five dollar calves may grow into hundred dollar cows; don't send them to the butcher. The pigs need shade in the pasture. There should be trees as well as shelter. Do not let the little pigs hang over a high trough or they will grow crooked in the backs and be spoiled.

MONEY IN HOG RAISING.

Next to Poultry Swine Are Most Profitable of Farm Animals.

The meat supply of the country can be increased more quickly by the hog route than by any other. The country's need to augment its supply is great, but prevailing high prices alone should be sufficient inducement to farmers to raise more hogs. The prospect of success never was brighter. The high prices ruling in all markets show that the demand for pork is in excess of the supply.

Hogs fit into the modern scheme of farming on nearly every farm and are one of the most important animals to raise both for meat and for money. They require less labor, less equipment and less capital, make greater gains per hundred pounds of concentrates fed, reproduce themselves faster and in greater numbers and give a quicker "turn over" of money than any other animal, except poultry.

The hog has no rival as a consumer of byproducts, and but for him numerous unmarketable materials might be wasted. Kitchen refuse, not only from farms, but also from hotels and restaurants, when cooked before feeding makes an excellent diet.

The value of skimmilk as a hog feed is known on every farm, though not always fully appreciated. In the neighborhood of large dairies pork production is a very prominent and lucrative supplement to the dairy industry.

The hog is also a large factor in cheapening the production of beef. Hogs following steers have in many cases increased the profit per steer by from $6 to $9. But hogs should not be allowed to follow dairy cattle unless the cattle are known to be free of tuberculosis, owing to the disease danger.

KILLING CUTWORMS.

An Effective Remedy Is Poisoned and Sweetened Bait.

Few are the gardeners who are so fortunate as never to have seen their young plants destroyed by cutworms.

It is perfectly possible to destroy these pests, however. A common and effective remedy is the poisoned bait, which is mixed and applied as follows:

Take a bushel of dry bran, add a pound of white arsenic or paris green and mix it thoroughly into mash with eight gallons of water, in which has been stirred a half gallon of sorghum or other cheap molasses. (Arsenic and paris green are deadly poisons, handle them with great care.) This amount will be sufficient for the treatment of about four or five acres of cultivated crops. After the mash has stood for several hours, scatter it in heaps about the size of a marble over the fields where the injury is beginning to appear and about the bases of the plants set out. Apply late in the day so as to place the poison about the plants before night, which is the time when the cutworms are active. Apply a second time if necessary. Keep children, live stock and chickens away from this bait.

Planting Small Potatoes.

Not many years ago I had seventy barrels of potatoes, all about the size of a small hen's egg, writes a New York farmer in American Agriculturist. The buyer did not want these, so I sorted out a load, and they were planted in the field with others. The small potatoes were bushelled up at digging time and the best sorted out for big seed. These potatoes all were planted June 12. The field of two acres yielded 300 bushels to the acre. I prefer a potato of natural size. I cut the potatoes into four pieces. When whole potatoes are planted they start earlier than the cut ones.

Dairy Stable Floors.

Only concrete floors should be permitted in a dairy barn. They cost more, perhaps, originally, but they are the cheapest in the long run. For one thing, they make it possible to save out of the liquid manure, a very valuable item.

Important Discoveries.

Cheapened metallurgical processes will probably make available as new materials a number of metals now little known. Magnesium, for instance, is likely to become one of the common metals very soon.

Sparrows Eaten In England.

Sparrows are often eaten by English country persons. They are captured easily in the mesh nets stretched over the ground and baited with grain, or in nets hung at night around their roosting places in ricks, hedges and ivy-clad walls. Also, the ground can be baited and a crowd of feeding sparrows lured low with a gun, using blue shot for the purpose.

Unified Varied Writing Forms.

When Charles the Great became monarch of central Europe, among other great ideals he set himself to unite the learning of Christendom by purifying and unifying the many and varied forms of writing. To do this he went back to the original Roman model. The invention of printing came as a great advance, and at first the type took the form of a writing hand.

That Was the Reason.

"The paper states that you pleased a big audience at the banquet last night." "The paper is wrong. I did not appear." "I'm, I guess the paper is right."

A Question.

Said the bear cubs: "Judging from the time some of the young blood of this town arrive home in the morning, it's hard to tell whether to call them night owls or larks."

Poison for Rabbits.

Poisoning by means of phosphorized grain is said to be an effective means of checking the increase of rabbits in certain parts of the British colonies.

Jewish Armies Conscripted

On the approach of an enemy the Jewish army was recruited by a conscription made from the tribes under the direction of a mustermaster, by whom also the officers were appointed. The army was divided into thousands and hundreds under their respective captains (Numbers 31; 20:14; Numbers 2:34; II Chronicles 25:5; 20:12).

Where We Are.

A clergyman, in rushing on our common morality, gave vent to his feelings in this remarkable epigram: "We're here today, and away tomorrow."—Christian Register.

Plow Evolved Slowly.

The plow evolved slowly from a crude instrument of wood into the steel tool of today. In many parts of the world even today a very primitive form of wooden plow is still in use.

Proof Conclusive.

"No bachelor can understand a woman," declared Mrs. Stubbs. "Huh, you don't say so?" replied Stubbs, with a snort. "What else in the world do you suppose unkes a man a bachelor?"—Judge.

Many Candles Made.

Though candles are not so generally used as they were before the days of mineral illuminating oils, gas and electricity, they still constitute an important article of manufacture. The candle is an ancient form of lighting. The word comes from the Latin word, "candere," which means to "glow."

Apes From Ceylon.

Apes mentioned in the Bible in I Kings 10:22, and II Chronicles 10:21, were brought to Palestine from Ceylon, the same country which supplied ivory and peacocks.

Small Dogs Quickest to Learn.

The best kind of dogs to train to perform tricks are the smaller ones, such as terriers, poodles, spaniels, collies, and dachshunds. The poodle is the cleverest of all.

Pelican's Habits.

The pelican is commendably regular in his habits. The parent birds catch fish, and, after eating their fill, fly to their young, who eat by thrusting their bills down the mother's throat and feasting on the half-digested food.

Polish Aids Shoes.

Some women do not realize that a walking shoe wears better and appears well for a longer time if it is frequently polished. A new street shoe ought not to be worn much until it is polished once, for without the polish it is much more liable to be scratched than with a good polish. Especially is this true of tan shoes.
